PART 1: About NACL

Nanaimo Association for Community Living (NACL) is a non-profit society formed under the Societies Act of British Columbia. NACL has been serving people with developmental disabilities in Nanaimo and the surrounding area since July 22, 1986.

A detailed history of Nanaimo Association for Community Living can be found on our website at: <https://www.nanaimoacl.com/our-history>

NACL has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) since 2005.

Our mission and vision guide our programs, activities, and decisions.

"A person-centered approach is the way we challenge ourselves, our communities, the people we support, and families to be innovative as we help each other live fulfilled lives."

"Building inclusive communities, one bridge at a time."

NACL's Commitments

NACL is committed to removing the barriers faced by individuals with a developmental disability that prevent them from reaching their full potential. Only through creating a society that is inclusive of all its citizens can this goal be obtained.

Commitment to Community

Being part of our Community is essential for our Association. Community, as we define it, means all its citizens. On a broader scope, NACL extends this definition of community to include our corporate partners. As a strong, vibrant agency, NACL takes a leadership role in building an inclusive community.

Commitment to Inclusion

The concept of inclusion is the foundation of NACL's values and principles. To not be included means to stand outside the community, and this can be a very lonely place. We strive to involve people of all abilities in our efforts towards a fully-inclusive society. Only by seeing everyone as equals can we be truly inclusive.

Commitment to Service

Person Centered Planning drives the development of all new services NACL provides. As historical service delivery models evolve, person-centeredness is the engine for change.

Statement of Diversity

The Nanaimo Association for Community Living (NACL) acknowledges and respects the value of a diverse community. NACL recognizes that the scope of diversity includes gender, race/ethnicity, family status, age, mental/physical abilities, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, socio-economic status, and occupational focus.

NACL will maintain an environment that is supportive of these elements. We will promote inclusion within our organization and the communities we serve.

We commit to:

- Services that respect individual and cultural differences;
- Promoting cultural awareness and understanding within the Association and community;
- Endeavoring to reflect the diversity of our community through our Board of Directors, staff, and volunteers; and
- Not tolerating discrimination of any kind.

OUR SERVICES

Nanaimo Association for Community Living (NACL) provides services for people living with developmental disabilities.

- Services are targeted to youth age eight (8) and up, and adults who are 19 years or older;
- We serve approximately 215 people;
- NACL employs approximately 180 staff and contracts with over 90 home share providers.

NACL's Current Programs

- Community Inclusion (Monday to Friday 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.)
 - ✓ Actions Day Program

- NACL Employment Services (a program that helps people find jobs)
- Snoezelen Room (a multi-sensory room, booked by appointment – ask for details if you're interested)

Referrals for these services, except for the Snoezelen Room and Child and Youth Residential, are accepted through Community Living British Columbia (CLBC). Child and Youth Residential Services are referred by the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD). Waitlists for services are maintained by either CLBC or MCFD, as applicable.

As a registered non-profit society, NACL has a membership which is open to everyone by donation (except employees). You can become a member, too. NACL holds an Annual General Meeting once a year to elect a Board of Directors, plus talk about the past year and our future plans.

The Board of Directors establishes the vision, mission, values, principles, and Code of Ethics to guide the employees, Home Share Providers, and contractors who support the people we serve. They also set the policies NACL uses to manage the organization.

The Board hires and oversees an Executive Director, who is responsible for implementing those policies and overseeing NACL employees and Home Share Providers, as well as making day-to-day decisions about NACL operations.

PART 2: General Information for Persons Served and Families/Caregivers

Individual Rights

Nanaimo Association for Community Living recognizes that the individuals we serve have certain rights and responsibilities, and we strive to provide you with information about those.

Persons served have the right to freedom from:

1. Abuse;
2. Financial or other exploitation;
3. Retaliation;
4. Humiliation; and
5. Neglect.

In further detail, persons served have the right of:

▪ Equality and non-discrimination.

Persons with disabilities have an equal and effective legal protection against discrimination on all grounds.

▪ Accessibility.

People with disabilities have access to buildings and homes, to transportation, to information and communications technology, and to other facilities and services so they can participate fully in all aspects of life.

▪ Freedom of expression and opinion, and access to information.

People with disabilities can exercise the right to freedom of expression and opinion, including the freedom to seek, receive, and impart information and ideas on an equal basis with others and through all forms of communication of their choice. Further, children/youth in care can be consulted and express their views, according to their abilities, about significant decisions affecting them. They have the right to be informed about and to be assisted in contacting the representative under the Representative for Children and Youth Act or the Ombudsperson.

▪ Liberty and security of the person.

People with disabilities, on an equal basis with others:

- ✓ Enjoy the right to liberty and security of person; and
- ✓ Are not deprived of their liberty unlawfully or arbitrarily.

▪ Respect for privacy.

No person with a disability, regardless of place of residence or living arrangements, shall be subjected to arbitrary or unlawful interference with his or her privacy. Further, children/youth in care have the right to privacy during discussions with members of their families, subject to any court order made after the court has had an opportunity to consider the questions of access to the child/youth and during discussions with a lawyer.

- Health.

People living with disabilities have the right to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health without discrimination on the basis of disability.

- Education.

People with disabilities can access general tertiary education, vocational training, adult education, and lifelong learning without discrimination and on an equal basis with others.

- Work and employment.

The right of persons with disabilities to work on an equal basis with others.

- Protection and safety in situations of risk and humanitarian emergencies.

Protection and safety of persons with disabilities will be preserved in situations of risk and humanitarian emergency.

- Freedom from torture or cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment.

No-one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment. No-one shall be subjected without his or her free consent to medical or scientific experimentation.

- Freedom from exploitation, violence, and abuse.

All appropriate legislative, administrative, social, educational, and other measures need to be taken to protect persons with disabilities from all forms of exploitation (including financial), violence, and abuse, including their gender-based aspects.

- Living independently and being included in the community.

Disabled people have the same right as everyone else to live where and with who they want.

- Adequate standard of living and social protection.

The right of persons with disabilities to have an adequate standard of living for themselves and their families. Further, children/youth in care have the right to be fed, clothed, and nurtured according to the community standards, and to be given the same quality of care as other children.

- Participation in cultural life, recreation, leisure, and sport.

Persons with disabilities have access to services from those involved in the organization of recreational, tourism, leisure, and sporting activities. Further, children/youth in care have the right to participate in and receive the religious instruction of their choice, and to receive guidance and encouragement to maintain their cultural heritage. In addition, Indigenous children have the right to receive guidance, encouragement, and support to learn about and practice their Indigenous traditions, customs, language, and belong to their Indigenous communities.

NACL therefore:

- Provides you with information so that you make informed choices;
- Involves you in the planning of services and activities;
- Supports you to explore other options when you change your mind or make a mistake;
- Involves you and others who know you well to explore risks and develop plans to minimize those risks;
- Educates you about your rights and responsibilities; and
- Reviews those rights and responsibilities with you annually.

Personal Information

When you are referred and accepted to a NACL service, we ask for basic information. However, when we begin your person-centered planning, we will ask for more detailed information to understand your strengths and needs, so we can provide the best possible services.

Individual Planning

At NACL, we work with you on what is called a Person Centered Plan (PCP for short). This is a comprehensive, individualized document that ensures services and supports reflect your needs, preferences, and dreams. You will be able to fully participate in the planning process. NACL also encourages your family members and support network to participate.

The plan covers many different areas of your life. It is important that the information you give us is accurate and up-to-date, so we can adjust our services to meet your changing needs.

We keep a copy of each person's plan in their individual file, and will provide copies of your plan to you and others involved in developing your plan, with your consent.

Once you leave the program, we archive your file – but it is still available any time you want to look at it. Our commitment is to always keep the information secure and confidential, even after a person leaves the program.

Confidentiality

NACL upholds the rights of all persons served and their families to privacy and confidentiality. To ensure you have the right to have information about you treated in confidence:

- You or your family members, guardians, committees, or representatives will participate in intake meetings and be fully informed of your privacy rights and access to personal records, including:
 - ✓ The use of Form SD003-P (Authorization and Waiver of Confidentiality);
 - ✓ The use of release forms for obtaining third party information;
 - ✓ The process for accessing their personal records; and
 - ✓ Complaint procedures regarding privacy concerns.

- Whenever possible, you must provide the information yourself.
- When shared by employees/Home Share Providers, only information which is deemed essential is to be given.
- Where employees, Home Share Providers, or volunteers provide the information, it is to be done with your consent, utilizing Form SD003-P (Authorization and Waiver of Confidentiality) unless due to health or impairment, you are unable to do so.
- All records, files, and notes pertaining to persons served are the property of NACL, and are subject to its control. Furthermore, all records (electronic and paper) are securely stored, and retained and/or disposed of in accordance with applicable laws.

If you have any concerns, speak to any NACL staff or the Program Supervisor.

Problem Solving

Person Centered Planning at NACL ensures a proactive approach in preventing and dealing with concerns or problems. Throughout the planning process we communicate directly with you, your families/caregivers, staff, and home share providers. Any concerns are resolved with everyone involved.

Complaint Procedure

Persons served or their family members have the right to be heard. You should not wait to tell us if you or they are having a problem or have a complaint. It's your responsibility to tell us about it as soon as possible, and we will help in any way we can to solve the problem.

NOTE: There will be no retaliation or barrier to service if a person served has a complaint.

NACL encourages everyone to try to resolve a conflict.

- First, you or your family members/caregivers should try to talk to the Program Supervisor, contractor (if applicable), or a staff member that you trust.
- If possible, you can use our special form (SD015-P – Complaint Resolution Form) to write out the complaint. If you can't write it, you can come to the front desk at NACL's Administration Office, and we'll make sure to find someone who can help.
- We will discuss the complaint with you and everyone involved within three (3) days (72 hours).
- Within 14 days of the complaint being filed, the staff heading the investigation will prepare a report about the incident, including the actions taken to resolve the complaint, and we'll book a meeting with you to talk about it.
- If you don't like the results you can tell us why, we'll look at it again, and we'll meet with you to discuss any possible changes to the decision about the complaint.
- If you still aren't happy with the results, the Executive Director and/or the Board of Directors will give a decision in writing and meet with you within 14 days to discuss that decision.
- The Board of Directors is the highest level for complaint resolution at NACL.

- If you are still not satisfied with the Board of Directors' decision (if it goes to them), you or your family member/caregiver can contact Community Living BC (CLBC) or the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) – whichever one applies to you. We will give the contact information needed.
- If you are not satisfied with CLBC's decision, you or your family member/caregiver can contact the BC Government's Advocate for Service Quality. We will give the contact information needed.

Health and Safety

Nanaimo Association for Community Living (NACL) is committed to promoting health and safety agency-wide. NACL ensures all persons served receive the highest quality of safe care and support, based on their individual health and safety needs, and employees/Home Share Providers have a healthy and safe environment in which to work.

In its effort to maintain this environment, NACL will:

- Actively promote health and safety in the organization;
- Ensure the health and safety needs of all persons served are addressed in Person Centered Plans;
- Endeavour to maintain safe working conditions;
- Develop safe service delivery and work procedures, providing the necessary training to staff or Home Share Provider/caregivers to successfully meet the health and safety needs of persons served; and
- Enforce compliance with safety procedures, directives, and relevant legislation by all employees/Home Share Providers, including:
 - ✓ Federal and provincial legislation;
 - ✓ WorkSafeBC regulations;
 - ✓ Community Living BC (CLBC)/Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) standards of care;
 - ✓ The Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) health and safety standards; and/or
 - ✓ The Collective Agreement (wherever NACL staff is involved).

Emergency Procedures

Each program and building has emergency procedures for the safety and well-being of persons served and employees/Home Share Providers in the event of a disaster (i.e. medical emergencies, bomb threat, fire, earthquake, explosion).

Staff have been trained in first aid, and each building is equipped with first aid and earthquake kits.

There is a Safety Manual on site to help staff effectively manage all types of emergency situations, from man-made to natural disasters.

Emergency response drills are practiced regularly, including monthly fire drills, with the participation of staff and persons served.

Abuse/Harassment Prevention

NACL recognizes that persons served shall not be subjected to any form of abuse/harassment. We are committed to eliminating and/or minimizing the risk of abuse/harassment through the following practices:

NACL's Core Values

Our vision of community inclusion for the people the agency serves guides our programs, activities, and decisions. Therefore, appropriate personnel policies, procedures, and practices are developed, maintained, and adhered to by NACL employees/Home Share Providers. Per NACL procedure, staff will not engage in any behavior detrimental to a person (person served, employee, visitor, etc.) which would be considered harassment or abusive.

Hiring Criteria

NACL employees working in our programs must have:

- ✓ A criminal record check;
- ✓ A Class 4 Unrestricted driver's license (to drive wheelchair-accessible vans) within three months of hire; and
- ✓ A minimum qualification of Community Support Worker or equivalent.

Training

All NACL employees/Home Share Providers are trained and kept up-to-date on the following:

- ✓ First aid certificate;
- ✓ Supporting Individuals through Valued Attachment (SIVA);
- ✓ Person Centered Thinking (PCT)/Person Centered Planning (PCP); and
- ✓ Ongoing in-service training specific to persons served's individual needs.

Standards/Regulatory Compliance

NACL must remain in compliance with the various standards and regulations of providing community social services, including:

- ✓ Community Living BC (CLBC)/Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) standards of care;
- ✓ The Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF); and
- ✓ Community Care Licensing.

Who Abuses People with Disabilities?

Abuse can happen to anyone – however, people with disabilities may be more at risk of being abused than others. People with disabilities are most often abused by people they know. This can be anyone with whom they have some contact, as a patient or client. An individual can also be harassed by another person served, or anywhere outside in the community such as restaurants, markets, hospitals, sports facilities, etc.

Identifying Abuse/Harassment

The following chart will help you determine whether you are being abused or not.

RELATIONSHIP FACTORS	HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP	UNHEALTHY RELATIONSHIP	ABUSIVE RELATIONSHIP
Sharing feelings	You feel safe and strong enough to tell the caregiver how you really feel.	You feel awkward telling the caregiver how you really feel.	You are afraid to tell the caregiver how you really feel because you fear being put down or threatened.
Disagreements	You can have disagreements and still talk respectfully to each other. You resolve your disagreements.	Your disagreements often turn into fights.	You are afraid to disagree because you do not want the caregiver to get angry and violent. The disagreement is an excuse for abuse.
Dealing with changes in circumstances (for example, if your condition changes or if there is something new in your life)	As circumstances change, you and the caregiver talk about the changes and agree on any changes that may be needed with your care.	The caregiver does not want to talk about how things are changing, or is slow to change when your circumstances change.	The caregiver refuses to adapt to changes, even if the care is no longer appropriate. Or, the caregiver makes changes without consulting or telling you in advance.
Medication and adaptive devices (for example, canes, hearing aids, or other equipment to help with a disability)	You and the caregiver understand and follow your medication requirements. Your assistive aids are in good repair, and available to you when you need them.	Sometimes medications are missed or late. Sometimes adaptive devices are not kept in good condition, or are not available to you when needed.	The caregiver uses medication to try to control you, or the caregiver steals your medication. The caregiver threatens to deprive you of your medication or assistive aids.

RELATIONSHIP FACTORS	HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP	UNHEALTHY RELATIONSHIP	ABUSIVE RELATIONSHIP
Verbal abuse and violence	You and your caregiver do not say mean things to each other. There is no physical violence.	There have been a few incidents of putdowns, and mean or controlling behavior in your relationship. There is no pattern of violence.	The caregiver hurts you and does not stop even if you say it is hurting. The caregiver has injured you. The physical or sexual abuse and/or intimidation are increasing.

If you suspect that someone (including you) may have been abused or neglected, you must follow these steps:

- Watch for the signs of abuse listed above.
- Tell someone about what is happening.
 - ✓ If the person you tell does not seem to take you seriously, tell someone else, and keep telling people until you find a person who is helpful. The more people that know about the abuse, the more likely it is that someone will be able to help stop it.
- Protect yourself from:
 - ✓ MEDICATION ABUSE: In this case, notify the Program Supervisor, and get medical attention if needed.
 - ✓ SOMEONE HURTING OR SCARING YOU: If you are in immediate danger, phone 911.

If a Person Served Has Been Abused...

NACL will:

- Ensure the person's immediate safety and well-being;
- Call the police if the person's safety is at immediate risk;
- Complete a Critical Incident Report and contact Community Living BC within 24 hours;
- Explain the options available to the person; and
- Cooperate fully with any investigation by the police and/or Community Living BC, the Office of the Public Trustee, or the Regional Health Authority.

Advocacy

NACL supports the rights of individuals and their families through three kinds of advocacy:

1. Personal Advocacy

We advocate on behalf of persons served and families to get the support you need.

2. Self-Advocacy

We support persons served and families to enhance their advocacy skills so they can advocate for themselves.

3. Systems Advocacy

We advocate for support and change within the systems that affect our persons served.

Quality Assurance

We at NACL ensure quality services by maintaining conformance to the following standards:

- CARF's Aspire to Excellence, Quality Individualized Services and Supports, and Employment and Community Services standards;
- CLBC's and MCFD's standards of care; and
- Licensed group homes meet the standards of the Community Care Facilities Licensing.

This includes a commitment to continuous quality improvement, which is reported on annually in our Performance Review on NACL's website. This report outlines the achievements of the year and the plans for improvement in the coming year.

Suggestions and Feedback

We welcome your suggestions and feedback about the services we provide. You can give this in many ways:

- Tell the staff about it.
- Contact the Program Supervisor.
- As part of our overall commitment to improving our services, we ask you to complete a survey once a year about how satisfied you are with the services you or your family member are accessing. There is a different survey for each program, so you may receive more than one.

Accessibility

NACL promotes accessibility and works to remove barriers. If you face a barrier to accessing our services or the community, talk to a NACL staff member.

PART 3: Residential Services

Residential Services is another way of saying “home.” Nanaimo Association for Community Living (NACL) currently has several residential group homes (some for adults, some for youth), and decides which home is best for you based on your needs, likes, and personality – as well as the needs, likes, and personalities of your soon-to-be roommates.

Most of the residential homes are licensed through Community Care Licensing.

How do I access NACL's Residential Services?

Upon receipt of a referral from Community Living British Columbia (CLBC), the following process will be followed by the appropriate/designated NACL management staff:

- Your referral form will be reviewed, and management staff will determine NACL's ability to meet your needs.
- We are committed to supporting all eligible individuals; however, at times we may not be your best option.
- Should we be unable to serve you, a written confirmation will be forwarded to the referring body, outlining the rationale for the decision.
- If you choose not to accept our service, we will provide information on potential alternate resources.

Note: CLBC holds the waitlist for adult residential services – and they will determine who will be referred when there's a vacancy.

Once it has been determined that you are eligible for services, you will be informed. In order for you to get to know us and for us to get to know you better, you may want to come and spend a night or two, or have a meal and spend some time with us before you move in.

To ensure the staff can support you according to your needs, we will need you or your family/caregiver to complete our Intake Form. This information will tell us the things we need to know about you so we can give you good care.

What needs to be done before I move in?

Once you have been accepted to our Residential Services, we'd like you to come to a planning meeting. Your family members/caregivers, CLBC Representative, and other health care professionals (as appropriate) are welcome to attend also. At this meeting, we'll discuss:

- What your interests, skills, activity interests, dreams, and goals are.
 - ✓ Goals could be things like volunteering, joining a music program, exploring the community, learning more about staying safe in the community, managing conflict, etc.
- Creating a Person Centered Plan (PCP) – this is a living document that will change over time.

- ✓ It will include who is in your support circle, as well as things that may be barriers and what supports/services can help overcome these barriers.
- ✓ The most important part of this process is that you (the person served) will be making decisions on what your goals will be.

We'll also review this Handbook, and we'll discuss NACL's procedures regarding confidentiality, privacy, and access to personal records.

Also, we'll provide an information portfolio which includes:

- ✓ A brochure describing the program;
- ✓ This program handbook;
- ✓ An intake form;
- ✓ Consent forms; and
- ✓ Representation Agreement information.

Note: Any necessary accommodation for alternative communication styles will be made.

You may receive a tour and/or an orientation before deciding to move in.

You will move into our residence in a way that meets your individual needs (i.e. gradually or immediately).

The appropriate manager will process your information, including demographics, care and support needs, risk assessments, medication information, your goals, and other relevant information to ensure quality and safe care and support. This information will be entered in your details page in a computer program called ShareVision, and we'll assign your programs(s) under the Program/Residence History.

What to expect when living in a NACL home

- A safe, secure, and healthy environment – persons served receive a high standard of care by trained staff;
- You will have your own private bedroom;
- Nutritious meals and snacks are provided in each home, according to the Menu Plan through Community Care Facilities Licensing;
- You will receive regular medications and treatments as prescribed by your doctor; and
- You will be supported by staff to attend community activities and activities in your home – depending on the appropriateness of the activity and staff availability.

Remember – this is your home. To respect each other's right to privacy, other people who live in your home will not be allowed to go into your private bedroom, and you will be asked to respect their privacy as well by staying out of theirs.

Respite Services in our Group Homes

Respite care is temporary, short-term care provided to persons served who are entitled for Respite services. Respite Services involve a respite provider staying with the person served who is eligible for CLBC support for a certain amount of time, or it might involve the individual going away for a break – like a mini-vacation.

The arrangements can be flexible to meet your needs and schedule.

These are things to consider when it comes to Respite:

Times In and Out of Respite

- Respite times are pre-determined. Please do not arrive for respite earlier than your scheduled arrival time. We want everything to be ready for you. Arrangements for stays to be extended must be made through CLBC.

Extra Staffing for Respite

- Extra staffing is determined by CLBC on a case-by-case basis. The maximum extra staffing allowed by CLBC is eight (8) hours every 24 hours. NACL determines how those hours will be used.

Protocols and Care Plans

- Please provide these prior to coming, as it is important that we have this information to provide the best care to you. If you do not have them, we will work with you and any professionals involved in your life to creating them.

Each time you come to and leave Respite, the staff will give you and/or your family member/caregiver an Intake Form to sign. You or your family member/caregiver are responsible for updating the staff about your personal information since your last visit, and to write your medications on a form that will be provided on arrival. When you leave, your caregiver will need to sign you out.

Who pays for the services offered?

Community Living BC (CLBC) pays for the services you receive from NACL when you are referred to us.

What do I need while living in a group home?

- Any adaptive equipment required for eating – for example, a special scoop, plate, cup, or eating utensils. Please bring them with you.
- Any adaptive equipment used daily – if you use a wheelchair, walker, cane, braces, splints, transfer belts, or trays, please make sure they are in safe working order.
- Personal hygiene products – briefs and Attends are provided, but other personal products such as feminine hygiene products, special soaps, shampoos or creams, shaver(s), deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrush, and comb/hairbrush will be purchased from your own money with support from the staff.

✓ PLEASE NOTE: NACL is not responsible for lost, lent, broken, or stolen items (including money).

Who takes care of transportation?

At NACL, we support you in using public transportation, including HandyDart. Our staff is trained to transport you in our own vehicles, with due care and attention. NACL ensures that our staff adheres to all requirements of the Motor Vehicle Act, including maintaining the vehicles and carrying adequate insurance.

What if I have any medical issues?

On admission, you or your caregiver are responsible for ensuring staff are informed of any medical issues/concerns you may have as outlined in the Intake Form, such as:

- Seizures, allergies, dysphagia, etc.;
- Communicable disease(s) such as HIV, Hepatitis B/C, Tuberculosis, etc.; and/or
- Safety concerns such as self-injury, injury to others, ingesting foreign objects, violent outbursts.

We will consult with your doctor, dentist, or a medical professional from the Health Services for Community Living (HSCL) team (Registered Nurse, Occupational Therapist, Physiotherapist, Speech Therapist, Dietician, or Dental Hygienist) to help you stay healthy.

Medications

Staff are not able to give any medications that are not ordered by a doctor and labeled by a pharmacy. We will arrange with the pharmacist to have all the medications prescribed to you by your doctor blister-packed with a label attached that has your name, medication name, and times to be given.

The pharmacy NACL uses is:

Central Drugs

ADDRESS: 495-A Dunsmuir Street
Nanaimo, BC V9R 6B9

PHONE: (250) 753-6401

Each NACL home has a Pharmacy Policy and Procedure Manual from Central Drugs that we follow.

- Notes:
- ✓ All medications will be locked up and administered by staff at the times prescribed.
 - ✓ Staff will also administer any other medications prescribed by your doctor (such as creams, eye drops, etc.), as long as they have been blister-packed by a pharmacist with a pharmaceutical label attached.
 - ✓ When you require medication for whatever reason, your support needs and procedures for medication administration will be outlined in your Person Centered Plan.

PRN Medications

All PRN medications must be accompanied by a Health Care Plan or Protocol from the Health Services for Community Living Nurse (HSCL) under the Vancouver Island Health Authority (VIHA).

- Notes:
- ✓ All medications will be locked up and administered by staff.
 - ✓ When you require medication for whatever reason, your support needs and procedures for medication administration will be outlined in your Person Centered Plan.

Seizures

- If you have seizures, a protocol will need to be in place as deemed necessary by Health Services for Community Living (HSCL).
- If you take a PRN seizure medication, that medication, along with your protocol, will be in your fanny pack – which you will wear on outings.
- For your safety, you may need to wear a lifejacket when swimming.

Wheelchairs/Walkers/Special Equipment

If you use a wheelchair, walker, cane, braces, splints, transfer belts, or trays, we will help ensure they are all in safe working order.

Personal Care

Staff will assist you if you require personal care or assistance in the bathroom.

In the event of a serious injury, operation, or time away from the home...

Prior to returning, protocols may need to be in place regarding adaptive equipment, lifts, and transfers.

Leaving or Transitioning in Residential Services

Sometimes you might want to change your group home arrangement in case:

- It hasn't worked out and you are looking for a different caregiver/group home;
- Your needs can be better met by another service or agency;
- You move out of our service area;
- Continuous unsuitable conduct is happening that can be harmful to you or others; and/or
- You need or want a different service.

Whatever the reason, we are here to help plan for and support your transition to a new living arrangement. We prepare a detailed Exit Summary about you, and document your experience. We will share this with the new home or service provider, and work with you and other agencies or programs to plan for the transition.
